OPEN SHOPS IN LUMBER YARDS OF RICHMOND

Local Firms Place Themselves on Same Basis as Alameda County Companies. Plan to Save Business.

Business Agent Fred Heckman has reported to the Building Trades council and the Central Labor council that the union stamp has been thrown out of most of the lumber yards of the county, and that the action was simply a forerunner of open shop in all parts of Contra Costa.

In Richmond, the Stege Hardware and Lumber company, Irwin & Lewis, and the Tilden Lumber company have discarded the stamp, and are now running under open shop conditions. This action was taken by the firms Monday.

All of the men of the above firms are still at work, and are satisfied with conditions. There has been no change made in hours or wages.

It is understood that the change is made so that local firms will be operating on the same basis as outside firms, as the lumber companies of this side of the bay have been operating as open shop for the past three or four years. Carpenters have been working on this lumber from outside, that bore no stamps, but have refused to work on any Richmond lumber unless it contained the stamp.

The action of the local companies is to prevent outside firms from coming in and "gobbling" up the local lumber business of the city.

INSANE "SAINT" AT HOSPITAL LEAVES

The attaches of the county hospital are beginning to wonder of Walter Ross, the religious "nut", who was arrested in this city for disturbing the peace and quietude of Rev. D. W. Calfee's residence is really all that he claims to be.

Yesterday afternoon he was placed in a room and the door was securely locked. A short time later when a nurse appeared with some food for the man she found the room empty.

Ross was placed under arrest by Sergeant McGowan in this city on Saturday afternoon when he appeared at the Calfee residence at 416 Ninth street and informed the pastor that he was a "Saint" who had been sent to tell the worthy pastor that his end on this earth had come. Calfee in attempting to allay the man's radical ideas only excited his anger at which he strode to a pool of water in the yard and with many frantic gesticulations he began wading through the pool and shouting that walking on water was a mere pastime for him.

SPILLING CREAM TINT MOVES SARGEANT

"Sarge" McGowan held open air court today.

The reason was that the interior of the city jail was being given a coat of cream tint, the woodwork a mahogany finish and the brass a new luster so that it will be some inducement for a fellow to be placed under arrest in the future.

When "Sarge" McGowan saw that it was his move following the spilling of several quarts of cream paint on his blue uniform by the over exubriant painters he shoved his desk, and "blotter" out into the alleyway between the police station and fire hall, where he again was in readiness to receive all visitors.

GUARDS SEARCHING FOR ESCAPED PATIENT

B. Hottinger who was recently found to be demented by the board of insanity commissioners of this county and ordered to the Mendocino State hospital, was last evening reported as having escaped from the institution.

A posse of armed guards are at the present time beating the forest surrounding the asylum for the man who is feared may do violence to pedestrians.

POUNDMASTER HAS HARD NUT TO CRACK

The German Kaiser, the Austrian Duke, the Czar of Russia, the King of England and William Jennings Bryan all have to take their hats off to Poundmaster Smith when it comes to grabbing the publicity. The local "canine eradicator" has his name on one page at least of every Richmond paper each time they go to press.

Here's his latest:

Little Girl—"Say, Mr. Poundmaster, if ponds about the city dried up, would the frogs croak?"

Smith who was dumbfounded could find no words in either his language or the canine alphabet to make reply and was on the point of submitting to defeat when his horse whom he calls "Pegasus," on account of his wonderful intelligence, "neigh, neighed Pauline."

Secures Cup.

Miss Helen DeLorme, sister of Victor DeLorme, manager of the Richmond theater, was yesterday awarded the silver loving cup as the champion girl tennis player of Alameda county.

LOCAL POLICE SEARCHING FOR MURDERERS OF VOGEL

ROSALIE RIST, SISTER OF MRS E. L. KRIEG, GIVES IMPORTANT TESTIMONY AT THE CORONER'S JURY.

The police of Contra Costa county are today searching for John Bartnett, 17 years of age, of Pittsburg, as one of the suspects in the Vogel murder case and who is alleged to have been seen prowling about the Vogel home just a short while before the murder.

A picture of Bartnett was identified by Coombs the Fruitvale grocer, who was held up as the "tall, thin man who did most of the work in his store."

That no stone may be left unturned for the apprehension of the murderers of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vogel of Fruitvale, Chief of Police Walker has detailed two plainclothes men on the job in this city to cooperate with the Oakland police force in capturing the criminals.

Upon receiving word from Captain of Inspectors Lou Agnew of the Oakland police force today in which he stated that the murderers are believed to be in hiding around the bay district, Chief Walker dispatched his two plainclothes men on a tour of the hotels.

Special instructions have also been given all policemen to watch all passengers boarding or leaving incoming or outgoing trains.

The testimony as given at the coroner's jury yesterday by Miss Rosalie Rist, sister of Mrs. F. L. Kreig, wife of the plumbing inspector, residing at 544 Eighteenth street, this city, follows:

"I was to a dance at the Mission Turn hall, 18 Valencia street, San Francisco, on the night of the murders.

"I left the dance at 1 o'clock and caught the 1:20 boat home," she said. "Miss Guthrie was with me and on the boat I met Joseph Reichling and E. Anders, one of whom I knew, and they accompanied me to the Vogel house, where they left me. It was then about 2:10 as near as I can remember, and I went immediately into the house.

"I found the house upset, and, upon going to my room, discovered that a dollar which I had left in a purse and a string of pearl beads were gone. Returning downstairs, I was very excited and went into the bathroom and, turning on the lights, went to the room where the Vogels slept. Their mattress was turned upside down and the room was in disorder. I thought that perhaps the couple had had a row and had gone to the basement to sleep, where I knew there was a couch. Then I went next door to the home of Philip Grosse, where I worked previously.

Slept at Grosse Home.

"I told Mr. Grosse what I had found at the Vogels, but he said that my imagination had gotten the best of my good judgment and that if I did not care to go back I could stay there all night, and in the morning I could make an investigation. This I decided to do and in the morning found the bodies."

Grosse was also called to the stand. He testified that he never once thought that a murder or robbery had been committed, and therefore it never entered his mind to notify the police. He did not go over to the Vogel home, believing that it was a family row and that he would not be thanked for interfering.

"But did it not occur to you, seeing that the couple were most 80 years old, and very feeble, that they could not disturb the house to the extent described?" asked Hynes.

"I thought that Miss Rist, in her excited condition, had exaggerated. I had no idea that it was so serious or I would have called the police."

SCHOOLS ARE TO OBSERVE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

A fitting program has been arranged at both the Washington and Lincoln grammar schools for celebrating Washington's birthday tomorrow afternoon. The students at the Richmond Union High school instead of carrying out the formal program as arranged by the grammar schools will have their afternoon taken up with a debate.

Following are the programs as arranged for the remembrance of the day by Principal Zumwalt of the Lincoln grammar school and Miss Nora Ashfield of the Washington grammar school:

1. Salute the Flag, school.
2. "Speed Our Republic," school.
3. Hail to the "Heroes," Third and Fourth Grades.
4. "God Guard Columbia," Fifth and Sixth Grades.
7. "America," School.

FAIR COMMITTEE TO MEET TUESDAY

KEY ROUTE PREPARES FOR BIG CROWD

The committee having in charge arrangements for the big Contra Costa day at the Exposition, which takes place on March 6th, have about completed all arrangements for transporting the crowds to and from the grounds. They have arranged with the Key Route to transport the people from Richmond right to the grounds without having to go through the crowded streets of San Francisco and a flat rate of $1 has been made for transportation and admittance to the fair. Those who have season tickets will be charged fifty cents for the round trip and children will be given a rate of 75 cents for the round trip, including admission.

Chairman Miller of the general committee has notified the members that another meeting, and the last one, of the members will be held on next Tuesday evening at the offices of Senator Owens in the Elks' building. At that time all arrangements will be completed. Traffic Manager Brown, of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways will be on hand and tentative figures will be given him as to how many people his company will be expected to handle on that day. It is estimated that there will be from two to three thousand from Richmond alone and that the other portions of the county will furnish two or three thousand more.

Sheriff R. R. Veale, who is one of the chief factors at work on Contra Costa Day and World's Fair Commissioner John Bermingham will be at the meeting Tuesday night. They are trying to evolve a plan at the present time to bring the Martinez people to Richmond, transfer them to traction cars and then take them in a body along with the Richmond crowd direct to the Fair. It is claimed that a great deal of time and some money can thus be saved to the up-county people by this method. General Veale and John Bermingham are both understood to be in favor of the plan and they are working now to the end to take the entire county population in a body and land them in the Fair grounds at one and the same time.

BOY IS ARRESTED FOR STEALING REVOLVER

Fifteen-year-old Alward St. Clair is being held at the police station pending the arrival of Deputy Probation Officer Andy McMahon of Martinez to answer to a charge of having stolen a revolver from the shooting gallery of William Pickett at 524 Macdonald avenue.

The little fellow with tears gushing out of his eyes at the sight of the police station house, today stated that he picked the gun up intending to play soldier and never had any idea of committing any wrong doing.

So straightforward has been the story as told by the boy that it is thought that he will be turned loose.

SEARCHING FOR BAD CHECK MAN

The police are searching today for the "Little Grey" man who yesterday so successfully passed a fictitious check for $8.00 on the Humboldt Savings bank of San Francisco on H. J. Richter of the French American bakery at 1224 Macdonald avenue.

According to Richter's description the man was small of stature, clad in a grey hat, a gray overcoat, a grey suit of clothes, grey cloth top shoes and had a grey necktie.

His purchases amounted to sixty cents at which he wrote out a check for $8.00 on the Humboldt Savings bank, at the same time leaving five cents for rolls which he said his son would call for in the morning.

This morning the check was returned to Richter by the Mechanics Bank marked "No Funds," which in turn was handed to the police.

MRS. BANDUCCI TO BUILD SUMMER HOME

Mrs. Josephine Banducci, who owns a great deal of property in this city and other bay towns, has purchased the George Wall home in Santa Rosa and will depart for that city tomorrow for a long stay during which she will renovate the property and build a summer home. Upon completion of the work up there the lady expects to return to her home in Richmond.

FILE INCOME STATEMENT OR PAY BIG FINE

All Corporations and Individuals With Income over $3,000 Must Make a Return.

Only a few days remain of the time when returns of income for the year 1914 can be filed by individuals and corporations without incurring the severe penalties for delinquency in filing.

March first is absolutely the last day returns can be filed without subjecting the taxpayer to these penalties. In the case of an individual, the specific penalty for delinquency is from $20 to $1,000 and in the case of a corporation, from $50 to $10,000 and in addition to these penalties, any amount of tax found to be due will be increased fifty per cent. One cannot, therefore, too strongly urge the importance of filing returns on or before March 1.

Immediately after March 1st, a large force of internal revenue officers will be sent into the territory of this district, which comprises all of California north of Kern and San Luis Obispo counties, and all of the State of Nevada. From information gathered during the past year, these officers will know the names and addresses of practically all persons whose incomes for the year 1914 were sufficient to make them liable to file returns.

The liability of an individual to fire returns can be sufficiently stated. Every citizen or resident of the United States, man or woman, whose net income amounted to $3,000 or over for the year 1914, must file a return. Every non-resident alien with a net income of any amount from property owned and business, trade or profession carried on in the United States must file a return.

The single or married status of a person is not a consideration in the determination of liability to file return although it later does become a consideration in the determination of tax liability.

ALL WHARF BIDS REJECTED BY COUNCIL

After a long session last evening, in which the matter was argued pro and con among the council, the City Attorney, and the bidders, the council decided to reject all bids for the construction of the municipal wharf and advertise for new bids.

It seems that in the first call for bids, contractors could put in combination bids, that could be figured out in several ways. Some of the contractors bid on only one item, some on more, and some on the entire job.

At the session last night practically every contractor claimed he had the lowest bid, figuring according to his view.

City Attorney Hall was of the opinion that to award a contract might mean suits, and lots of delay and that the best thing to do was to reject all bids, which was done.

New bids will be received on March first and each contractor will be asked to submit an estimate on the entire job.

Pool Room Sold.

The Alaska Pool room on Macdonald avenue was sold under foreclosure sale this morning for $240, and was bid in by B. H. Griffin for the Mechanics bank.

ROAD MAKING LEGISLATION

That the present session of the Legislature will make a radical change in the method of administering county highways seems certain. The expressed intentions of many legislators to enact legislation dealing with county highways, and the apparent public sentiment back of such legislation, make certain the fact that there is to be a radical change in road government in California.

Now this is all very well and good, yet it must be confessed that the plan of bringing the entire roadmaking system of the state under the head of a state commission which is to be appointed by the governor does not appeal to the voters and taxpayers. In other words, the proposed legislation will do away with the plan of county supervisors handling road matters, which is the chief reason of having county supervisors. If they are to be shorn of their powers, why not do away with all county government and turn county affairs over to the state, or at least turn them over to the governor in order to strengthen his political machine?

How would you like to be a member of the town council of Radnitz, Bohemia, all of whom are in jail for failing to take part in a celebration of the Kaiser's birthday?

That shining exemplar of political righteousness, Bois Penrose, declares that if his re-election to the United States Senate is investigated, he will personally see that the election of James D. Phelan of California is carefully probed. The insinuation that there were irregularities in the election of Mr. Phelan is absurd, but Penrose's threat indicates very clearly that he does not expect any favors from the California senator and that Congress could, as far as he is concerned, afford to lose him. Certainly, but the people of California and the United States couldn't. Penrose's antipathy for a senator is prima facie evidence that that senator is worthy of his seat.--Stockton Mail.

Our friend Hiram is still gathing to himself power in the way of additional commissions. He wants to do away with all elective officials and have them appointed by himself. He is a smooth article and the best of it all—for him—is that the people believe in him. Some day there will be an awakening and then it will be finis for him as it was for the so-called Southern Pacific political machine, which by the way, was the work of children compared to the adroit contrivance which is being constructed by our governor.

That war is one of the most expensive forms of barbarity known to civilization is shown by the London Economist. Russia $2,125,000,000; France $1,625,000,000; United Kingdom $1,200,000,000; total, $4,950,000,000. Grand total $8,575,000,000.

Jean Adrien Antoine Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador at Washington, and one of the foremost authorities on English literature, is 60 years old today. M. Jusserand has been in the United States for the past thirteen years, during which time the French embassy has been a masterpiece of diplomacy. He has become greatly attached to the people of America, and in turn he is the most admired and most widely known of the foreign ambassadors at Washington. Of late years, M. Jusserand has been devoting himself largely to literature, in which he is a leading authority. His book, "A Literary History of the English People" is a standard work.

Ambassador Jusserand was born in Lyons, France, February 18, 1855. On attaining his majority he entered the diplomatic service. He was a minister to Denmark for four years before he came to America in 1902 to take charge of the embassy at Washington. He has been honored by many societies in America, and is a grand officer of the Legion of Honor. He married Miss Elise Richards, daughter of an American banker in Paris in 1895. She is his constant companion and their home life is ideal. Each day they may be seen driving through the parks of Washington.

Major General Henry F. M. Wilson, of the British army, recently promoted for conspicuous gallantry in France, 56 years old today.

Prof. Edward Hale, of Union College, son of the famous devine of the same name, 52 years old today.

DANGEROUS FIRE SEASON FORESEEN

The possibility of a dangerous spring and summer fire season in the national forests in the west is presaged by reports that two forest fires occurred in January and that the snowfall in much of the Rocky Mountain region and in the foothills has been much below normal. January fires are almost unheard of in the national forests, and the snow reports are regarded as especially significant as they indicate that unless the deficiency is made up the forests will be dry earlier in the spring than usual, with a consequent increase of the fire menace.

The fires occurred in the Pike Forest, in Colorado, and the Black Hills Forest, in South Dakota; the latter believed to have been of incendiary origin, according to the District Forester at Denver. About 75 acres was burned over, all told. They were the only national forest fires reported for January.

The District Forester at Ogden, Utah, in charge of the national forests in Nevada, Utah, and Southern Idaho, reported that the snow in this region also is far below normal.

GATES CAN HANDLE OVER 78,000 HOURLY

Seventy-eight gates, each having a capacity of 1,000 persons an hour, will be thrown open Saturday morning to receive the crowds to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. The gates are distributed on seven different streets and will give access to the Exposition to suit the convenience of persons coming from every direction.

In these gates the Potter turnstile is in use, the most modern device of its kind, admitting 1,000 persons an hour leisurely, and capable of receiving 1,250 persons under pressure. There will be 225 gatemen operating turnstiles and otherwise attending to the incoming crowds to the Exposition.

The gates are destributed as follows: Van Ness avenue entrance, 18; Fillmore street entrance, 18; Scott street entrance, 18; Baker street entrance, 5; Laguna street entrance, 7; Presidio entrance, 4; Ferry slip, 8.

The yacht harbor entrances will be opened some days later.

MARKS IN WOOD HEAVY WIND STORMS

Little diagonal streaks or wrinkles in the grain of a piece of timber not only betray weakness but sometimes indicate periods of stress through which the wood passed when it was growing. They may even be taken as a sort of check on the official record of wind storms, as in the case of some lumber tested at the forest service laboratory at Madison, Wisconsin.

The marks are caused by what are called "compression failures," which occur when the fibers bend or buckle under a too heavy strain. In cutting up logs collected for experiments at the laboratory it was noticed that these compression failures appeared on the north side of a number of trees which came from the same locality in Florida. By counting the annual rings of the wood and from knowledge of the time when it was cut in the forest, it was decided that the compression failures must have been caused by a severe wind from the south about the year 1898. Inquiries were made in Florida, and it was found that a hurricane had in face swept over the region at the time indicated.

The experiments have determined that the strength of a piece of wood may be seriously impaired by slight compression failures due to rough handling. Dropping a beam across a skid may cause a compression failure at the point at which the beam strikes the skid, and it will be at this point that the beam gives way when it breaks under a strain too severe for the weakened fibers to withstand. Hitherto unaccountable breakage in hickory wagon spokes and other presumably strong material are now attributed to compression failures caused by wind storms in the period of growth or by hard usage in lumbering and manufacturing processes.

ELLIS ISLAND ~ GERMAN CRUISER MOLTKE IN FOREGROUND

Frederick C. Howe, commissioner of immigration, does not fear overcrowding of America. Neither does he fear the illiterate immigrant.

"Immigration is an important question to the people of this country, but it is not so important as land monopoly, for it is land monopoly that causes the crowding into the cities and the exclusion of the people from the land," says Howe.

"All the land in America is owned, but only a small part of it is cultivated, and a much larger part of it is in a low state of use. There are only about thirty people to the square mile in America, while in Europe there are ten times that many; in some countries fifteen times as many. All Germany could be put in Texas, and Germany is a prosperous country. The immigrants who come here are many of them peasants. They would go to the land if they could do so. But the land is held by speculators in colossal tracts throughout the west, and people cannot get to it.

Howe says that his motto is that "the earth belongs to all the people."

An incident early in his administration illustrates the commissioner's attitude. He found on taking office a large number of immigrants detained for various reasons on the upper floors of the government buildings at Ellis Island. Many of them had been there for months. Below stretched an immaculate green lawn which was carefully protected from use. It took him only a few hours to get the captives out onto the lawn where scores of them stretched themselves at length, fairly kissing the earth and luxuriating in the touch of green grass again.

"The earth means opportunity," says Howe. "The American traits of which we boast are not the product of race so much as the product of free contact with natural opportunities through a number of generations. That contact is now impossible for the average man. The way to restore it is to adopt a taxation policy which will encourage activity and discourage the idle holding of land.

"There is some reason for the opposition of labor to immigration," says Howe. "Labor is fearful of increasing the competition for jobs. This competition is a product of land monopoly and will disappear with it.

"I cannot see the menace of the unlearned immigrant. I suspect that my ancestors, Scotch-Irish, who came to this country 125 years ago, were illiterate. Otherwise they would not have come. Few people in comfortable circumstances ventured on such a journey when months were occupied in passage and when 20 to 80 per cent of the immigrants died in passage."

Prohibition in Oregon.

SALEM, Ore., Feb. 18.—Statewide prohibition, effective January 1, 1916, is the law of Oregon today. Governor James Withycombe, surrounded by state officials and temperance workers and under a battery of cameras, signed yesterday the bill passed by the Legislature to make affective the people's mandate of last November, when a prohibition amendment was voted into the state constitution.

Take Many Prisoners.

BERLIN, Feb. 18.—The official report given out in Berlin today says the Russians taken prisoners by the Germans in East Prussia now amount to 64,000 men.

Soil Cleared: Kaiser.

BERLIN (via London), Feb. 18.—The president of the province of East Prussia at Koenigsberg has received the following telegram from Emperor William, who has been on the eastern battle front:

"The Russians are completely beaten. Our beloved East Prussia is free from the enemy."

Evacuate Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Carranza forces have again evacuated Mexico City, official dispatches to the state department report today, and the Zapata forces have re-entered. It was not stated to where the Carranza forces withdrew.

Robbers Surrounded.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—Thirty-five deputies surrounded today four men who are believed to have taken part in the holdup and attempted robbery of the north bound Southern Pacific Owl train near Saugus last night. The suspected bandits were cornered in the hills back of Saugus, according to a telephone report received shortly after nine o'clock at the sheriff's office here.

To Direct the Work.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The Copenhagen Daily Mail's correspondent says Hamburg reports that Emperor William is going to Helgoland personally to direct Germany's submarine blockade of England, which went into effect today.

Reply Firm.

BERLIN, Feb. 18. (via London).—The reply of Germany to the protest of the United States against a blockade of British waters is couched in the most friendly terms, but firmly maintains the position of Germany as already announced.

The note recommends that the United States government send warships to England to convoy merchant vessels through the danger zone as security against attack with the understanding that vessels thus guarded carry no war supplies.

The answer, which is a lengthy document, was converted into code at the United States embassy under the direction of Ambassador Gerard, and has been transmitted in full to Washington.

The note explains that Germany's proposed action is rendered necessary by Great Britain's policy of attempting to cut off the food supply for the German civil population by a method never recognized in international law.

WEST SIDE HILLS TO BE BEAUTIFIED

Soon the west side hills will blossom out in glaring red and green verdure, for the members of the West Side Improvement club will, the latter part of this week commence their work of planting red geraniums over all the hillside streets and terraces.

All of the brown hill grass is to be burned away and in its place will shoot up green tendrils of the garden grass together with evergreen geraniums.

The committee appointed at the last meeting of the club to handle this work is composed of Mrs. T. T. Cramer, chairman; Mrs. J. F. Eaton and Mrs. R. L. Adams.

YOUTH OF STATE NOT PREPARED FOR WORK

One fourth of the children entering the common schools of the state leave at the end of the sixth grade, less than one half of them complete the eighth grade, and less than fifteen per cent complete the high school.

These facts are set forth in the annual report of the commissioner of Industrial and Vocational Education, which further states that these young people, who are not able to secure a university course and who are employed in the common occupations of life, have received very little training in the public schools that is directly applicable to the needs of their several callings.

If the vocational education bill, introduced in the Senate by Strobridge, goes through it will do much to change this condition. The purposes of the act, as expressed in its title, is to encourage instruction in agricultural, industrial, trade, commercial and other practical subjects in the elementary and high schools of the state. It provides for the establishment and maintenance of part-time day and evening vocational schools.

Should the measure introduced become a law, it is believed that it will stimulate the various communities of the state to provide practical instructions to these young people through the establishment of day vocational continuation schools.

There are also a great many mature men and women under employment who need certain school training supplementary to their occupations. Their need can be met only through the establishment of evening vocational schools.

The act provides that vocational courses may be conducted in any suitable place provided by local school authorities. This will make it possible for classes to be established in the places wherein pupils are employed, if such places are found to be more convenient and more advantageous than the regular school rooms.

The act provides that vocational courses may be conducted in any suitable place provided by local school authorities. This will make it possible for classes to be established in the places where in pupils are employed, if such places are found to be more convenient and more advantageous than the regular school rooms.

Provision is also made for the employment of vocational guidance experts to assist the young people in choosing suitable occupations. In addition to the aid already received by the local districts under the present law state aid is provided in an amount not to exceed one-third of the amount expended for instruction in the vocational subjects.

It is hoped that this additional aid will also stimulate local communities to supplement the course already existing in the public schools by a variety of courses preparing for the various common occupations of the community.

It is provided that any vocational school or class receiving state aid must be approved by the State Board of Education, and local boards of education are required to provide for local boards of inspection to be composed of an equal number of employees and employers. The duty of this board will be to see that the vocational courses introduced shall be made as practical as possible.

Any community desiring state aid upon account of the vocational courses must make a survey of the situation and the need of the local community before it may receive such aid.

The bill provides that all occupations, including household arts and agriculture shall be considered vocations. This makes the bill broad enough in its scope to provide for the future establishment in any community of such vocational courses as may be deemed necessary to meet the local situation and local need. The State Board of Education is fostering the Strobridge bill.

SEE "WILDFIRE" AT RICHMOND TONIGHT

Last times of the production of "Wildfire," the sensational and very highly thrilling racing play with Miss Lillian Russell and a star cast in the presentation will be made at the Richmond theatre this evening. The play has had a most successful run here and has proven wonderfully attractive because of its well laid scenes and the perfection which attended the filming of the great star. There are many delicate situations in the drama which Miss Russell has carried out superbly. Each person not ordinarily interested in the great sport of racing have found much in this story to interest them.

Tomorrow and Saturday, the greatest of all California motion picture successes will be shown when "Salomy Jane" will be offered with Miss Beatriz Michelena in the star role. This play is so widely known that there is no need of telling the story. It was produced in California, the home of the most picturesque companies in the country. Miss Michelena has won a wonderful new fame in this drama and the theatres in the big cities over the state have been unable to accommodate the crowd that have poured out to see it.

HOW THE RATES AFFECT THIS COUNTY

The Railroad Commission has issued an order putting into permanent effect a new schedule of rates for Wells Fargo & Company.

The tentative rates fixed by the Commission in its decision of February 9, 1914, which effected a reduction of approximately $750,000 a year in the express rates throughout the State, are now, with some adjustments, made final. The rates as previously fixed were experimental and the company has kept exact records over a six months period to show the effect of the reduced tariffs. These records show that an average cut of approximately 15% has been made in the company's rates, although the specific reductions at certain points will average very much more. For Martinez, which may be taken as typical of all points in Contra Costa County, the reduction on general merchandise shipments of 100 pounds or over ranges from 9% to 35%, while on small packages merchandise shipments of 50 pounds or less the reduction ranges from 7% to 45%.

THE COLONIAL DINNER FOR TUESDAY

A pre-Lenten whist party was held on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Preston Rosier at 441 Thirteenth street. The prize winners for the afternoon's affair being Miss H. Smallwood, Miss Jarema Wolfskill, Mrs. G. Nevis and Mrs. Martha Finch.

Refreshments were served by the hostess following the awarding of the prizes.

PYTHIAN SISTERS GIVE WHIST PARTY

The members of Contra Costa Temple, Pythian Sisters, enjoyed the third of their series of whist parties at the home of Mrs. F. W. Linser at the Messerle apartments yesterday afternoon.

The prize winners for the party were: Mesdames T. J. Caron, C. F. Donnelly, H. J. Hill, L. M. Tubbs, F. G. Schach, A. Lang, F. Carlfield, E. J. Timmons, Zeb Knott, H. H. Moore, J. Towers, P. Boyer, A. T. Davis, J. A. Gregory, Chas. Cassidy, F. W. Linser, Mary Lucas, W. R. Fuller, Chas. Hutson and Alta Kemp. The next game will be played at the home of Mrs. E. J. Timmons on Sixth street and the last at Pythian Castle.

HEAD STUFFED FROM CATARRH OR A COLD

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breaths freely. No more hawking., snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

NEW PROGRAM AT THE ORPHEUM A WINNER

The Horelik Ensemble will be a distinct novelty at the Oakland Orpheum next Sunday and a European feature of class.

The tales told of the unhampered and wild passion of the wandering gypsy of their freedom and reckless pleasure, their vivacious and tempestuous hatred, and fiery uncurbed love, were never more vivid than is the pantomimic picture of "The Gypsy Camp," offered by the Horelik ensemble. It is a carnival of dance. The company, headed by W. Horelik, numbers fourteen people and includes some of the most remarkable dancers of Russian folk dances that have ever come to this country.

Wiseacres declared Charlie Grapewin would be unable to find a sketch funny enough to replace "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp." Pipp, of course, was a farcical classic. Mr. Grapewin, however, wrote, polished, and rewrote until finally he has put together, with as much skill as is required to assemble the numerous parts of a mosaic, a domestic comedy called "Poughkeepsie." "Poughkeepsie" is not studded with laughter. It is one continuous laugh and Charlie Grapewin appears to even better advantage in it than he did as the inebriate "Mr. Pipp."

It is a well known fact that the best bred animals are the hardest to train. For this reason Mons. and Madame Alf. W. Loyal deserve particular credit for what they have accomplished with the four high-bred poodles they exhibit. One of the canines, Toque, is really remarkable. One of his most daring stunts is to turn a double somersault in mid air over the heads of seven men, traversing a distance of thirty feet. The juggling, leaping and clowning of the Royal Quartette is as distinctive as it is possible for work of this sort to be.

Brent Hayes lifts the banjo to the level of the highest stringed instrument. Even the violin produces no more melody than Mr. Hayes extracts from his instrument.

The Brown-Fletcher Trio present a story in song called "Christmas Eve." The Brown-Fletcher Trio have made the locale Grace Church, New York City, giving a picturesque setting to their offering. The characters are the two extremes in the social register—the millionaire and a tramp with the inevitable police officer completing the trio. 'Christmas Eve" abounds with comedy. The music is appropriate, and all three of the men are the possessors of real fine voices.

Among the many importations which have been made for the benefit of vaudeville patrons is the English team of Hadie and Ramsden, who are offering a comedy skit called "Charlie's Visit."

Rae Elinore Ball, a violin virtuoso, will render a number of brilliant selections all in her own inimitable style.

The Newhouse Snyder company of cyclists will offer their new unique cycling act called "The Awakening of the Devil"—a European comedy novelty of the highest class.

THE PANTAGES HAS TWO BIG HEADLINERS

For Exposition week, the Oakland Pantages offers one of its biggest shows of the season. Two headline acts and six other features will be the bid for patronage. Joint top line honors are being shared by a big acquatic act called "Neptune's Daughters," a bevy of six shapely swimming sprites, and Harry Girard & Co| in a tabloid operetta entitled, "The Luck of a Totem." Harry Girard is one of the best known singers, actors and producers on the coast. He first became known by writing and producing "The Alaskan," an opera familiar to all. With Girard in "The Luck of a Totem" are Agnes Cain-Brown, a noted soprano and Estelle Watts, contralto and a male chorus of six. The scenery and costuming are picturesque in the extreme as the scene is laid in the wilds of the far frozen North.

"Neptune's Daughters" perform some dazzling high diving and trick and fancy under water swimming in a huge glass tank. It is credited with being a most sensational act. The special added feature of the act will be an amateur diving and swimming contest for local girls who plan to hold a frolic in the water. To winners of the contest, three massive silver loving cups will be awarded. Quinn Brothers and Marion, two men and a woman are a trio of comedians, singers and dancers. Miss Marion excels as a toe adncer. Helene Hamilton and Jack Barnes, travesty artists, Hilliar, the talkative juggler, shadowgraphist and monologuist, Harry Davis and company in an aerial sharpshooting act and three reels of comic motion pictures rounds out a highly promising bill of Pantages vaudeville.

Oiliness

Without "oiliness" any lubricant would be worthless. You can feel the oiliness of Zerolene by pouring a little on a piece of glass and rubbing it around with your finger. Oiliness is in reality the molecules of the oil rolling over each other—miniature ball bearings as it were. Thus when you use a good oil like Zerolene the wearing surfaces of your engine roll over these "ball bearings" instead of rubbing together. Dealers everywhere.

CALWA EMPLOYES TO DANCE AT EAST SHORE

Calwa products will be dispensed and Calwa hospitality extended to all who attend the second annual ball to be given at East Shore park tomorrow evening by the Winehaven employes of the California Wine Association.

A committee composed of Amos Moss, Ray Renner, John Miller and Charles Langridge spent all of today in decorating the huge pavilion for the affair which gives promise of being one of the most enjoyable dancing parties held at the park this season.

Elmo Pinkerton as chairman of the reception committee will see to it that all attending shall have a jolly time.

BANK SUES TO RECOVER ON NOTE

Suit has been filed in the superior court of Alameda county by the Bank of Antioch against A. Robertson as administrator of the estate of Martha Robertson, deceased, and others, for the principal of a note for $2500 given February 27, 1908, to the bank by Martha Robertson and A. Robertson; for interest on the principal since December 31, 1914, and for counsel fees amounting to $250 for the foreclosure of a mortgage, given as security for the note when it was signed, on Sixty-sixth street, Oakland. The bank claims that whereas the administrator of the estate of Martha Robertson allowed and approved the claim made upon the estate by the bank at the time of Mrs. Robertson's death, and that this claim was further allowed and approved in the superior court, but no money has been paid thereon.

SISTERS ENTERTAIN MANY AT BRIDGE

A Lily bridge party attended by more than seventy-five guests was held at the Edenia apartments at the corner of Ninth and Nevin avenues this afternoon by three sisters, Mrs. Lee D. Windrem, Mrs. Charles Pulse and Mrs. Walter LaSelle.

The card and refreshment rooms had been charmingly decorated for the occasion in yellow chrysanthemums, yellow streamers and evergreens.

The guests on arriving at the home were entertained for a short while with several grand opera selections from a Victrola following which the bridge party was commenced. At the conclusion of the afternoon's affair dainty refreshments were served by the three hostesses.

The invited guests in attendance at the party were: Mrs. U. S. Abbott, Mrs. C. L. Abbott, Mrs. H. C. Adair, Mrs. H. Adkison, Mrs. J. Brooks, Mrs. H. G. Biggs, Mrs. C. Brothers, Mrs. W. FERRY SHOWS A BIG GAIN IN YEAR

Those who predicted that the Martinez-Benicia Ferry and Transportation company would find it tough sledding, are doomed to disappointment when they read of the extremely successful year which the company finished at the close of December.

At the stockholders' meeting at Martinez it was found that the company has managed to clear during the past year $3417.33. Directors were selected and the announcement made that the ferry would be laid up two weeks in the near future for repairs.

The officers will be chosen at the meeting to be held next month. The total receipts were $23,067.99 and the disbursement $19,650.63. The ticket sales aggregated $20,613.35 and this included the carrying of the following: Passengers, 62,247; automobiles, 13,559; motorcycles, 1,605; teams, 1357.

The assets of the company were placed at $28,760 of which amount the steamer wts put down for $18,988.50 while the slips, tanks, etc were worth $9771.50. There are 2876 shares of stock fully paid up. Not only did the company succeed in paying for itself and having a balance of $3500 but it also managed to dispose of a note for $1200 which it had given out.

The largest individual sum paid out was the wages which amounted to $9,024. The fuel bill was $2,766.

The stockholders were greatly pleased with the showing and are looking forward to a record breaking year in 1915. The company cannot announce definitely when the steamer will be taken off the run as the railroad commission must be consulted.

The directors chosen at the meeting follow: W. H. George, J. J. McNamara, J. W. McClellan, Gustav Gnauck, L. V. Cooper, J. E. Glendon and George L. Sanborn.

Cox Appointed.

On the recommendation of Chief of Police Walker, Daniel Cox was last night appointed by the council to a position on the police force, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of A. G. Percy.

'THAT WAS THE DIVIDEND THAT COULDN'T FAIL

"And When it Did He Bought His New Suit Anyway."

"When I saw him, all fresh and nifty, and at peace with the world, I said: 'Fred, what on earth have you to be so cheerful about? Must have spent your last cent on that custom-tailored Suit.'

"You see, I have some stock in that same company and I'd been counting on my dividend for my own new suit. Fred told me then how I was off the track entirely about his suit. It was a beauty, of course, and he knew it fitted superbly, but he didn't have it tailored.

"HE BOUGHT IT AT CHERRY'S ON CREDIT! I went straight up there after I left Fred and picked out a suit that's a stunner. Had to leave it to have the sleeves shortened a bit—it fitted like a glove except for that. Come on up with me now—you'll want one of those suits—528 Thirteenth street is the address of the store where I bought my suit and they have an exclusive ladies' store across the street at 515. Cherry's have two lovely stores in San Francisco, for both ladies and men, at 1009 Market and 2400 Mission streets. advt.
